WILL STEWART GIVE UP THE PREMIERSHIP

LIBERALS KNOWN TO BE ALARMED BY GROWING STRENGTH OF U.F.A.

The Calgary Herald had the following article in Saturday's issue which would indicate rough water ahead for the Stewart Government.

Premier Charles Stewart will resign as head of the provincial government in Alberta and join the U.F.A. new political party in the west.

This is the latest sensational political report in a summer of top-sy political news and it comes on such good authority that it has set Liberal politicians by the ears throughout the province.

Publication of the report undoubtedly will be instantly and volubly denied, but those inside of political circles say that it is absolutely true. What lends special strength to the report is the growing strength of Liberal politicians in Alberta at the manifestations of strength of the new U.F.A. party. Moreover, the story that Mr. Stewart is sick and disgusted with the machinations of the ambitious politicians in his own party is founded on solid fact, which further a logical inference is drawn from the report that he will quit them and join the new U.F.A. party.

FORCED TO GO TO OTTAWA.

Although Mr. Stewart has gone east to attend the Liberal convention at Ottawa, it was widely known to newspapermen in Calgary by one of the most prominent Liberal delegates that Mr. Stewart was forced to go.

"He didn't want to go," said this delegate, "but we made him, and believe me, when he gets down to Ottawa he is going to hear a few things from our real Liberals. He can't put that stuff of sitting on the fence with the Unionists any longer."

"The animus in these remarks is due to the somewhat neutral attitude taken by Mr. Stewart at the time of the last federal election, followed by his declarations later on that he was still a Liberal."

PREMIER IS A FARMER

Premier Stewart, however, claims to be a farmer first of all, and it is this claim which is one of the factors in the report that he will join the Farmers' Direct Political party and refute the present politicians, who have been buzzing around him at Edmonton. For a long time it has been known that the Premier's Liberal government circles were not what were to be expected in a party presenting a solid fighting front.

ASPIRANTS FOR LEADERSHIP

There is one thing to be learned from the report that Mr. Stewart is to leave the Liberal party and join the Farmers' Direct Political party, and that is that Mr. Stewart is not a man who has been watching the course of events.

BOYLE AND JUDGEHIP.

It is well known that at the last session of the legislature, the government put through an act creating a new division of the supreme court in Alberta. The shifts and shuffles by this act will require the appointment of two new judges and the promotion of one. That Mr. Boyle wanted one of the judgeships is said to be an open secret. It would be an unlikely and unnecessary thing to state here the reasons why a number of even the Edmonton politicians did not think that Mr. Boyle was quite the person to be a supreme court judge. However, that had little weight with the ambitious minister of education, who maneuvered his way into the attorney generalship and from that vantage point proceeded to open fire on his leader, Premier Stewart, with some heavy guns.

THE POLITICAL PISTOL.

The story goes that Mr. Boyle virtually placed a political pistol at Mr. Stewart's head and told him that unless the premier supported his claims for the judgeship at Ottawa, it was all off with the Stewart government in Alberta. At any rate the yarn goes on to state that Mr. Stewart yielded and pressed Mr. Boyle's claims at the federal capital when he made a trip there after the legislative session, but without result.

MR. SIFFON APPEARS.

This was due to the fact that Hon. A. L. Sifton, federal minister of customs, Canadian peace envoy and former premier of Alberta, has a lot to forget just about politics in Alberta. Mr. Sifton has Hon. C. R. Mitchell lined up for the judgeship. Mr. Mitchell was the one Alberta minister who came out openly and boldly in support of the Union government at the last election, so there was nothing doing for Mr. Boyle.

But a little thing that he did not do discouraged the attorney-general. No chance. All he did was to withhold the proclamation of the act constituting the new supreme court in Alberta. As the federal government cannot make an appropriation for constituting the new court until the province has proclaimed the act providing for the court, in the words of the old farmer, "There ain't no such animal." The court just doesn't exist, that's all, and Mr. Mitchell and T. M. Tweed, who is reported to be the other prospective appointment, are still coyly waiting to be asked.

CAUSE OF IMPASSE.

The alleged reason for this impasse according to the political gossip is that Mr. Boyle is in an out-and-out unionist mood, and high hopes that a federal election would be precipitated this year, that the Union government would be beaten, and that then, with his friends in power, he would proclaim the act constituting the new court and be promptly appointed to a judgeship. But the section was not yet decided by him not to be for another year at least.

THE ALTERNATIVE.

When it began to sink into Mr. Boyle's consciousness that he really might lose the judgeship, and his ingrowing ambition turned back toward the premiership again. Mr. Stewart recognizes this as well as anyone.

OTHER BOOBY MEN.

But Mr. Boyle is the only one of the booby men in the cabinet. There is Hon. George F. Sifton, who is somewhat of a thorn in the side of the premier. Mr. Sifton has on more than one occasion spoken plainly and fearlessly in political circles, and he is a thorn in the side of the premier. Mr. Sifton is a thorn in the side of the premier. Mr. Sifton is a thorn in the side of the premier.

CORRESPONDENCE

AN ANSWER TO MR. WELTON.

To the Editor of The News.

Dear Sir—I was interested in Mr. Welton's letter to The Advocate this week in which the Editor bestows his blessing, and with your permission would like to offer some remarks.

"What are we waiting for?" For union it would be difficult to find a parallel.

The writer evidently thinks that it would be a simple matter to induce the members of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches to close their doors and form one congregation under the aegis of the Methodist church. Evidently he knows little of the history of these two bodies, of the phase of Christian doctrine, practice and government they represent, and the many with which they have held them through storm and stress of past centuries, of their contribution to the building up of Christianity and also of their influence on social and political life, neither does he consider how any one minister could possibly be acceptable to such a diverse group of people. It is a pity that he should have been so hasty in his conclusions, and that he should have been so hasty in his conclusions, and that he should have been so hasty in his conclusions.

THE UNDERLYING INFERENCE.

The underlying inference of the letter is that we should have financially if but one minister was necessary for the needs of three congregations, ignoring the human element; surely not a very delicate suggestion to make in view of the present influence of so-called Christian people. The tendency today is to run the church as a commercial business, demanding interest in the money, regardless of the fact that it is an institution ministering to the spiritual needs of humanity, that its success or failure cannot be measured by dollars and cents.

WHAT ARE THE PRACTICAL RESULTS.

What are the practical results Mr. Welton desires from this union? "Substantial growth in the religious and religious development." Some years ago a movement was on foot in theory to establish a Y.M.C.A. but it fell through because the Methodist church was unable to establish a Young Men's Club (Y.M.C.) in the basement of their church premises. It would be interesting at this time to learn the reason of its non-existence.

IT WAS REPORTED A SHORT TIME AGO.

It was reported a short time ago that the Rev. Thomas Freeman had been expelled from the Methodist church, and that he was now in the United States. It was reported a short time ago that the Rev. Thomas Freeman had been expelled from the Methodist church, and that he was now in the United States.

BIRTH.

At Red Deer, on July 26, to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hoesaki, a son.

OUR RETURNING VETERANS

SWORN IN

Capt. F. C. Ross spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Hanna, 4111 St. N.E., on his return from the front, and left on Monday of last week for his home at Rocky Mountain House.

Driver Charles L. George, of the 1st Auxiliary Horse, second son of Capt. H. George, arrived in Red Deer on Tuesday afternoon last week. He was one of the Red Deer boys who enlisted in the 13th C.M.R. in 1915. Charlie looks none the worse for his four years' service.

Sergeants Parsons and Mrs. Parsons came in on Tuesday last week. They were with the Canadian forces in France, and served mostly with the A.M.C., and brings back an English bride.

Com-Sergt-Major Charles Rutter, of the Forestry Battalion, arrived in Red Deer on the 3rd inst. It is probable that he will visit friends in the east before coming west.

Jack Tonsdale, formerly of the firm of Tonsdale & Tonsdale, and who joined up with the R.N.W.M.P. contingent for Siberia, and who served some time with the Canadian forces in that far away field of action, returned a few days ago looking as hale and hearty as ever. It would take more than a Siberian winter to freeze Jack's genial smile.

Cecil Rakos, of Pine Lake, who joined up with the 12th C.M.R., and who was seriously wounded, returned from overseas last week, looking in fine shape. He has been visiting friends in Ontario for several weeks.

Lieut. J. Arthur Carswell, of the R.A.P., returned to Red Deer on Wednesday afternoon last. He joined up with the University contingent of the Princess Pats in 1915. He was wounded in May 1916, was recalled to take a commission in the 15th, but arrived too late and was placed in the 191st. He was subsequently discharged. He then joined up with the 15th in December, 1917, got his commission, and went overseas again in August, 1918, and had just completed his training when the armistice was signed.

TWO STRONG MEN

Sir Robert has brought into the cabinet two strong men, and the prime of life who will bring to it strength and vigor and prestige. In Sir Henry Drayton and Dr. Tolmie. Sir Henry Drayton has a long career of public service and long and intimate acquaintance with the government. He is of course a tyro in politics, and like Thomas White, when he entered in 1911, is an expert in the day to day official work of public work was his noteworthy report on the railway situation in Canada. It is the policy of the government to carry out this report in toto, and to include the Grand Trunk Railway in the government railway system. This was one of the reasons why Dr. Tolmie was called to offer the portfolio to Sir Henry.

AS THE RAILWAY PORTFOLIO IS NOW LARGELY ONE OF FINANCE, SIR HENRY CAN BE SAID TO BE A MINISTER OF FINANCE.

As the railway portfolio is now largely one of finance, Sir Henry can be said to be a minister of finance. Dr. Tolmie is one of the outstanding men in agriculture in Canada, and has been in the cabinet as minister of agriculture, and was being strongly urged by the livestock interest of the country. The big sensation in the cabinet was the official announcement by Mr. Carswell that he was retiring from the cabinet and from public life.

THE POLITICAL CHANGES FOR THE PRESENT.

The political changes for the present are a surprise. It has been predicted for some time that Sir Henry Drayton would succeed Sir Thomas White, and it was also known that Dr. Tolmie was under consideration as minister of agriculture, and was being strongly urged by the livestock interest of the country. NEW MINISTERS

SWORN IN

CHAIRMAN OF RAILWAY COMMISSION WILL BECOME FINANCE MINISTER.—DR. TOLMIE, OF VICTORIA, TO BE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE.

Ottawa, Aug. 1.—The political atmosphere as far as the government is concerned, is clearing. Sir Henry Drayton, chairman of the railway commission, will succeed Sir Thomas White as minister of finance.

Dr. Tolmie, M.P. for Victoria, B.C., will become minister of agriculture, succeeding Hon. T. A. Crerar.

Hon. Frank B. Carvell has resigned as minister of public works, and will likely be succeeded by Sir Douglas Hagen, chief justice of New Brunswick, the former minister of marine and fisheries.

Official announcement of the cabinet changes will be made by Sir Robert Borden today. Sir Henry Drayton will be sworn in during the course of the day, and if Dr. Tolmie arrives in time he will take the oath of office at the same time.

Whether Sir Douglas Hagen intends to re-enter political life is not sure. He has been in Victoria for some time, and has been in the capital to believe that he will succeed Mr. Carvell. There is a paucity of men of the type which the government needs at this time, and for that reason it seems probable that Sir Robert has offered the portfolio to Sir Douglas Hagen, who was a Liberal member of the House of Commons, and who was only retired in 1917 at the request of Sir Robert Borden to make a place in the Union cabinet for Mr. Carvell.

THE CHANGES WOULD NOT ALTER THE SURPRISE.

The changes would not alter the surprise. It has been predicted for some time that Sir Henry Drayton would succeed Sir Thomas White, and it was also known that Dr. Tolmie was under consideration as minister of agriculture, and was being strongly urged by the livestock interest of the country. The big sensation in the cabinet was the official announcement by Mr. Carswell that he was retiring from the cabinet and from public life.

WAR CONTRIBUTIONS OF DOMINIONS WERE GREATER THAN DREAMT

London, July 31.—Lieut.-Col. L. E. C. Amery, under-secretary for the colonies, speaking on the colonial office's estimates in the house of commons, emphasized the immensity of the war time patriotic efforts of fellow subjects overseas. It might be gauged by noting the sum total of military efforts in the field before armistice day, either measuring the number of lives sacrificed, the number of the enemy killed or captured or the number of hours spent in the trenches, both Canada and Australia individually contributing greater military effort than the United States with a population of over one hundred million people.

Moreover, the efforts of the crown colonies were far greater than is usually realized. In every part of the empire the whites contributed as high a quota as any community in the world. Over two-thirds of the males in East Africa and also Rhodesia took the field.

Combatant native troops were of considerable number, continued Col. Amery, and their fighting value was recognized by all commanding officers concerned. West African forces were the King's African Rifles and the West Indian regiment, totally eighty thousand combatants and over half a million carriers and other auxiliaries, were raised in Africa.

Moreover, native chiefs to the humbly folk everywhere lavished gifts toward the Red Cross and other funds.

All the colonies substantially contributed to the cost of the war from revenue, declared Col. Amery, incurring liability larger than had previously been allowed. Therefore, he hoped this would be remembered when re-development and reconstruction in the colonies was being considered.

Col. Amery emphasized that reconstruction meant far more than restoration to pre-war conditions. There must be established a new and more positive standard in their duty toward the peoples to which parliament is responsible as a trustee.

Their territories of boundless possibilities urgently called for development in the interests of their own inhabitants and an impoverished world.

Col. Amery declared that British colonial administration was the best in the world before the war, and stated that in future it was going to be greatly improved on, especially as regards large territories assigned to Great Britain as mandatory. To accomplish this he said the colonial office service must be brought to the highest state of efficiency.

Railways in the crown colonies must be multiplied, said Col. Amery. In the dominions there were thirteen miles of railway per thousand square miles; in the crown colonies only 4.5 miles. Hence there was a prima facie case for a very great program of railway construction.

In concluding, Col. Amery drew attention to the remarkable constitutional developments in relations with the dominions. A fact which most impressed the outside world was that at the peace conference the full equality of the dominions with the motherland associations had been recognized, not only by Great Britain, but by other governments. He was convinced this new departure would go to the greatest lengths in effectively commencing for ever more imperial unity.

NEWS WEEKLY SERMON

By REV. GEO. D. ARMSTRONG

A great door and effectual has been opened and there are many adversaries.—1 Cor. 16: 9.

There are experiences which stand in our personal lives as determining factors in shaping our future history. This is also true in the history of nations. There are real crises in the progress of the race.

We have come through a testing period and are facing the possibilities of a new age, the best the world has ever seen. The sun never set on a world less fair than that upon which it rose. The normal order of history is onward and upward.

The task of the present day is to conserve the gains which have been made in these years of struggle and sacrifice; to make the bounds of freedom wider still. War, which has been regarded as a game for nations, must be treated as it really is, a crime against humanity, and religion which has been regarded as the ruling principle of another world, must be brought into vital relationship with all the interests of mankind.

We must, to use Donald Mackenzie's suggestive phrase, "widen the horizon of life to include God." This is our task. This is the door which lies open before us and the task is to be accomplished, the door entered in the face of opposition which will test our faith and energy to the very foundations.

Gradually the mind of the mind of Jesus the consciousness that His mission was to be world-wide and age-long. "All power is given unto me, go and teach all nations,—I, am with you always, even unto the end of the age."

The growing consciousness of strength awakens a deepening sense of responsibility. It is this sense of responsibility and of duty which calls forth the best that is in all of us. The way to success is to carry some great heart's work. Nothing will so tend to develop fellowship as common sacrifice.

The new day we are facing demands as ever, individual regeneration. Souls must be born again, individuals must have a revival of religious experience and power. We must have a clear vision of God and of His Kingdom.

In all this we must be true to ourselves. We must not fear to our opinion, we must obey God rather than man.

I have been very much impressed by reading a letter which was written by a personal friend of mine just before his death, to the head of a great fraternal society. In this letter he speaks on behalf of the world's plan (not his own) that ample provision should be made for their relief and closes with these lines:

"God bless the world's plan, and show it in answering the summons 'lights out.' I trust bravely, and I assure cheerfully. It is all right. The best enemy, and the greatest enemy is fear. I've passed this greatest enemy, and from the upland send to you a last and fond greeting and summons to duty."

When the day is longer.

Every earnest man is subject at times to moods or depressions caused by the fact that he has not had time or opportunity enough to finish certain tasks of importance which, it seems to him, he simply must perform. There is that unwritten book, that unmade tour of vision, those unfinished courses of study, those untried volumes, that palting for which the outline only has been sketched, that summer cottage not yet finished, that field not yet sown—how many and how tantalizing are these hauntings of melancholy suggested by the unachievable plans of life? But mingled with this feeling of depression there comes a Christian believer the consoling thought that in the next world he may complete the unfinished task of this life. There is eternity before him for perfecting action and he braves enough to do and dare all duties. A hint of this is given in the familiar song:

"Somewhere the day is longer,
Somewhere the task is done;
Somewhere the garden won,
God never meant that any human life should run its entire course and be fully glorified in this world. This is probation, untold volumes, that palting for which the outline only has been sketched, that summer cottage not yet finished, that field not yet sown—how many and how tantalizing are these hauntings of melancholy suggested by the unachievable plans of life? DO YOUR FEET BURN?

Then use Zam-Buk. There is nothing so soothing for tender, aching or blistered feet. It will ease the burning, draw out the soreness, prevent blistering and give you perfect foot comfort.

Also, it is a valuable remedy as Zam-Buk for sunburn, heat, blisters, blistered hands, aching muscles, mosquito and insect bites, cuts, bruises, burns and all skin irritations and ailments. Use all day and night.

ZAM-BUK IS SOOTHING!

I have faith that in the shadows blue at set of sun
I shall be judged by what I've tried to do, not what I've done."

These words coming from a heart and mind removed from the confusing issues of life, with a vision of eternity, have a special significance. His words are profoundly true. "The greatest enemy of mankind is fear," but perfect faith and love will cast it out.

There is a challenge to us today to change industrial conditions. How can we hope to live as we ought to live if our environment, the conditions to meet the needs of our personal religious faith and ideals. Salvation is to be found in the change in us, man lives to himself alone. We must be saved to all our relations with our fellowmen and this means that corresponding with the change in us, there must be a change in education in our social relations, in politics, in the forms and institutions of religion.

In religion organized to meet the changing conditions of present day life? Both from the world outside the church and from the church itself, we hear with increasing insistence the demand that our institutions shall be readjusted to meet our growing needs.

During the centuries since the days of Luther, there has been a minute analysis of religious life and many denominations have been called into being to conserve and express varying phases of religious truth. We have emphasized our differences.

The challenge comes to us today to emphasize our essential unity. We dare not put the new wine of present day religious experience in the old bottles of a passing age.

"New occasions teach new duties. Time makes ancient good uncouth." Are we heeding back unduly to past methods? Are we duplicating machinery to the detriment of our cause? Are we prepared to co-operate in giving the church a real place in the life of the community? Are we big enough, sane enough, generous enough to get together in a fellowship that will really express the ideals of Christ and the principles of His Kingdom.

Shall the U.P.A. succeed in transcending the interests of a class and working out the ideals of a real democracy? Shall the G.W.V.A. be actuated by the splendid heroism, comradeship and sacrifice which has characterized its membership in the struggle just ended? Unless it is confronted by great issues yet to be decided, great victories yet to be won, the organization which has such splendid possibilities will be a failure, a curse rather than a blessing.

There are great perils yet to be faced and the danger lies in the fact that a more spiritual insight, a higher type of courage, a more enduring perseverance is needed, that in the more subtle field of warfare we are now engaged in, we may hinder progress and defeat the purpose of God in human life.

LENINE SLATED FOR RETIREMENT.

Stockholm, Aug. 1.—The Svenska Darrin, is informed by persons closely connected with the Russian Soviet government, that Nikolai Lenin, the premier, intends to begin a drastic change of policy and then retire. One condition of his retirement will be that Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik war minister, be left in command of the side of the army.

At recently held meetings of the Soviet commissaries, the newspaper's informants say, the question of giving power into the hands of other Socialist parties was discussed, but Lenin declared that the best way to check reaction, as represented by the Admiral Kolchak, head of the all-Russian government at Omsk, was to drop power for a time in order to prove that no other party was able to reorganize Russia.

This Leninist attitude would strengthen the Bolshevik and enable them to resume power. Lenin's views were shared by George Tchitcherin, the commissary for foreign affairs; M. Stuchka, commissary of justice; and Prof. Podvolsky, commissary of the interior.

DECLARES TOO MANY HANGING BACK FOR $6 A DAY

Winnipeg, July 31.—Too many unemployed men are hanging back in the hope of getting $6 a day for harvest work, and having to work only two thirds of the time for their money, was the declaration of J. A. Bowman, superintendent for the province of the employment service of Canada today, when discussing the question of farm help. He expressed the belief that the $6 mark would not be approached, and added:

"If any relief assistance is offered next winter, the first question should be, 'did you respond to the appeal for help?' The very best of the unemployed men were prominent among the workers being sent to farms by the department."

Crop failures in Saskatchewan have released men for work in Manitoba, said Mr. Bowman. Today he was completing arrangements for the distribution of 400 to 600 men for that province.

Approximately 10,000 workers are required for the harvest fields of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Naval Officer As C.P.O.S. Manager

A particularly interesting naval career lies behind Commander Thomas Fisher, who has just taken up his duties in London as General Manager of the Atlantic Lines of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Steamship Line. The various duties of valuable national work in naval, shipping and diplomatic circles during the war covered by Commander Fisher specially fit him for the onerous duties of directing one of the world's great fleets in the world.

Commander Fisher was born in Birmingham in 1883. He received his naval training at Dartmouth on the old wooden battleship "Britannia." He spent three years in the "Britannia" and then, during the period of the Boxer Rebellion, and then having passed all his examinations with flying colours, he received very rapid promotion and at the age of twenty was made a Lieutenant. He served for some years in the Mediterranean on H.M.S. Bacchante, flying the flag of the late Admiral Sir Baldwin Beatty, Bart, and later on the same ship under Admiral Sir Henry Jackson, the late First Sea Lord. He has also qualified as a gunnery specialist. Commander Fisher served for a short time on the staff of the Director of Target Practice. Later he joined H.M.S. Bellerophon as Gunnery Officer and when in 1912 Mr. Winston Churchill introduced staff training into the Navy, Commander Fisher was one of the first batch of officers to take the Staff course, ultimately being selected to command the staff of the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth. When war broke out he went to sea with Admiral Sir Alexander Duff, the then president of the War College, as Flag Commander in the Reserve Fleet. He was later promoted to the rank of Commander and was in charge of that part of the organization set up to deal with questions relating to naval supplies. These were the early days of the blockade and neutral steamers were doing their best to evade the Naval Patrol and carry supplies to Germany via neutral ports. Commander Fisher took prominent part in developing and carrying out the system of supervising the movements and cargoes, etc., to neutral vessels by means of control over their supplies of bunker coal at ports at home and abroad. This system when in full working order, materially lightened the arduous task of the cruisers employed to blockade Germany because it was one of the conditions that all ships bound to or from countries adjacent to Germany should call voluntarily for examination at a British port.

Commander Thomas Fisher, R.N., General Manager of Atlantic Lines, C. P. O. S.

In America Commander Fisher had an opportunity of examining at first hand the shipping and transport problems of the States and Canada, and in connection with his duties he visited all the principal ports on the Atlantic seaboard, including the Canadian ports of Montreal, Quebec and Halifax.

Other C.P.O.S. Officials.

Following the appointment of Commander Fisher, R.N., as General Manager of Atlantic Lines, with Head Office at 3 Waterloo Place, London, it is now announced that the other principal officials of the Company in Europe, some of whose appointments have already been mentioned, are as follows:

Mr. J. A. Martin, Manager, Royal Liver Building, Liverpool.

Mr. J. V. Foster, O.B.E., Assistant Manager, Royal Liver Building, Liverpool.

Mr. A. H. Ailan, Freight Manager, Royal Liver Building, Liverpool.

Mr. C. E. Rutter, Agent, 103 Leadenhall St., London.

Mr. Wm. McK. Rodan, Agent, 25 Bowry St., Glasgow.

Mr. A. S. Ray, Agent, 18 St. Augustine's Parade, Bristol.

ROWELL OR DEWART?

Hon. N. W. Rowell has been read out of the Liberal party by The Globe, says the Toronto Sentinel, and Hartley Dewart has been read out of the Liberal party by The Toronto Star.

These two foremost Liberal leaders and the two principal Liberal newspapers are diametrically opposed.

What about the rank and file? Will the loyal Liberals who sent their sons to France, and maybe to die, fall in behind Hartley Dewart, who toured the country with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in opposition to the proposal to support the boys in the trenches? Or will they agree with Mr. Rowell, that while the fighting is over, the need for union among the patriotic citizens until reconstruction is accomplished is as great as during active hostilities?

It should not be difficult to reach a decision. It will be for those who were anti-conscriptionists during the war. They have selected Mr. Dewart as leader, with the help of Hon. Charles Murphy, and will do their best to defeat Sir William Hearst. It is up to those who stood by our boys at the front to stand by their friends at home.

THE LIBERAL CONVENTION

The long-talked-of Liberal convention is being held at Ottawa this week, and now the agony will soon be over.

There does not seem at the present time to be much harmony in the ranks of the faithful. One class declares that no Liberal-Unionist can be entertained for a moment, while others contend that may be necessary to weld the party together again. Some demand that Fielding is the logical leader of the party, while others say he is too old and should not be chosen as he was elected a supporter of Union government. The west wants Martin, but he declines. Some want a dual leadership, so that a protectionist can be elected in the east and a free trader in the west. This old chestnut cannot be worked again with the people of Canada. In 1896, Sir Wilfrid Laurier was elected as a free trader, but he did not reduce the tariff two per cent. in the sixteen years he was in power.

The Union government has already reduced the tariff more than the Liberals during their whole term of office. Armand Lavergne, of Quebec, is a delegate, and promises to make things lively for the Unionists. Manitoba seems to be giving the convention the cold shoulder, as we understand Premier Norris will not be in attendance. This will be a cold shower bath for the Alberta enthusiasts. Premier Stewart and most of his ministers are in attendance, but it is said he goes under protest, and his heart is not in the work, as it is well known he is in sympathy with the U.F.A. movement.

The action of the convention will be watched with great interest by the people of Canada.

LEADERS ADVOCATED REVOLUTION

CORRESPONDENCE SEIZED IN WEST READ AT TRIAL OF LABOR LEADERS

Winnipeg, July 31.—Documents taken in raids at Calgary, Vancouver and Edmonton by the mounted police were found to be the work of the labor leaders today. The crown marked and read scores of exhibits tending to indicate a serious condition. James Pringle, of the mounted police, Vancouver, who said he made the raids in Vancouver, identified the letters and copies found there, and among others was one to G. Stevenson, 401, Pender street east, Vancouver, secretary of the Socialist party of Canada, signed, "I am yours for Bolshevism," and another from the "Boatload" office of the Central Union Workers of America, Coleman, Alta., which said:

"In the mine I am, in the sole topic to Bolshevism, and at our next meeting we are going to pass a resolution to go over in a body to the I.W.W. as we are disgusted with the labor union. I am a subscriber to six Socialist papers, all suppressed. Received a bundle of leaflets from you, but was disappointed that they contained no information about the Bolsheviki movement in Europe."

ADVOCATED FORCE

A letter from the same man to Stevenson, February 27, referred to a fine imposed on someone for having Bolsheviki literature in his possession, and added, "We want to use some Russian methods, resolutions don't get us anywhere. The only way we will get anywhere is by the use of force. The time is coming when there will be riots and petty revolutions here and there all over the country. The proposed demonstration of ten thousand unemployed in Toronto is but a start. This was signed, 'Yours for the Revolution.'"

A letter from Stevenson to R. B. Russell, Labor Temple, Winnipeg, December 28, said, "The O.B.U. is the only topic of conversation here among the reds and the unionists."

Robert Howell, mounted police, Edmonton, identified the letters secured in the raids there. He exhibited letters taken at the residence of Joseph Knight, 33rd street. One from Russell to Knight, dated January 3, 1919, said:

POINTING TO RUSSIA

"I see arising out of the unemployment, now beginning to make itself manifest, the most glorious opportunity to show the plug workers that the only solution to the question is by continually pointing to him the situation in Russia."

"Your last pamphlet is a dandy, and no doubt we have got to hand it to the Alberta boys for getting out the propaganda."

Under date of November 29, 1918, Russell wrote Knight thus: "Dear Joe—Well, Joe, I expect we will now be confronted with the horrors of peace, and it is to be hoped that the reds will wake up now, and get in all the propaganda that can be expounded 24 hours per day. Now, Joe, there is another matter I would like to take up with you, and that is the 8 western conference we spoke about. I understand that Rosa, of Calgary, is trying to offset it by refusing to postpone the Alberta Federation conference for a month or six weeks, so we could all meet in conference about the end of February or early in March. I promised Rosa to write you and try and get you to propagate the holding of this conference of western organizations, so you can readily realize we could pack it with and no doubt start something. Yours in revolt, R. B. Russell."

John F. Maguire, secretary Socialist party at Edmonton, January 12, 1919, wrote Russell thus:

"With a big representation in Calgary in March we ought to make things hum. Wherever possible get reds to be the delegates. We will put forth every effort in that direction ourselves and maybe we might be able to turn it into a Socialist party convention."

From Edmonton, Joe Knight, on April 24, 1919, wrote to V. R. Midgley, Vancouver:

"Dear Victor, I have just returned from Winnipeg where I spoke at a mass meeting where some five thousand were present in the industrial bureau. The meeting was unanimous for the O.B.U., and the vote will be at least 75 per cent. in favor. Russell, Jones et al. are on the job day and night, and are sending a steady stream of propaganda literature throughout the coast."

"Yours for the O.B.U."

From the Vancouver raid there was obtained a circular sent, June 25, from the Alberta and Saskatchewan provincial executive committee of the Socialist party of Canada from Edmonton. After telling of the arrest of the labor leaders new on trial, and saying that "one of the workers was murdered and several injured by volleys of bullets from the guns of the North West Mounted Police," it adds, "Our only means the present stage of the game to obtain freedom is through the masters' court. Tomorrow it will be different and seems not to be too far distant. You understand, comrades." It is signed John F. Maguire, "Yours in the class war."

Also a copy of a letter dated April 30, 1919, addressed to Maximilian Cohen, the New York Communist, New York City, says, "Up to a few weeks ago we had great difficulty in securing revolutionary literature from your side of the fence, as our postal authorities were, I believe, practicing stern sabotage. Yours for socialism. (Signed) J. F. Maguire, secretary Socialist Party of Canada."

ASK INCREASED REMUNERATION

For City Officials Owing to High Cost of Living

At the meeting of the City Council on Monday evening the following report on salaries was presented by Commissioner Stephenson, and was referred to Ald. Collinson and Simpson as a special committee to report.—The Mayor and Council, City of Red Deer.

Gentlemen:—

I would respectfully request that you seriously consider granting an increase of salaries to all permanent City officials to date from July 1. I am aware that before the estimates are passed the proper time for such a request, but early in the year all of us considered that with the war over, the cost of living would decrease. Instead of that the Monthly Labor Gazette shows that the cost of living is steadily increasing and prospects are for it going higher. We all know by experience that this is a fact.

All of the city employees are married men with families, with two exceptions all are property owners and own their own homes in Red Deer, and I know that it is absolutely impossible for some of them to provide their families with necessities of life and make any provision for sickness or unemployment with present salaries. Most of the employees have spent years in the service of Red Deer, and their services are worth more each year to the city by reason of experience.

The Red Deer School Board and most citizens recognize this principle by advancing salaries with length of satisfactory service.

Nearly every city has this year increased salaries from fifteen to twenty per cent and their salaries were before the increases generally higher than in Red Deer, and in nearly every trade or business salaries and wages have had to be materially increased to meet the increased cost of living. In 1914 we paid laborers 27½ cents per hour, now we pay 40 cents and 45 cents. We then paid for men and women 50 cents per hour, now we pay 90 cents and $1.00 per hour. The salaries of school teachers in Red Deer have been materially increased since 1914. I note from the papers that in 1915 the principal of the schools was paid $1,500, now he gets $2,300, an increase of over 50 per cent, and the work is no harder now than then, and he works five days a week for about nine months and gets extra pay for examining papers in summer holidays. In 1914 my own salary was $2,500 as Assistant Secretary-Treasurer and Commissioner, now it is less than that, yet my work and responsibility has materially increased, and so with the other employees.

The Dominion Civil Service Commission has just signed an order-in-council providing for bonuses to civil servants as follows: Salaries of $1,200 a bonus of $400 or 33½%. Salaries of $1,200 a bonus of $200 or 16½%. Salaries of $2,000 a bonus of $300 or 15%. And these are retroactive to April 1.

It is only necessary to point out that the Official Labor Gazette shows that the cost per week of a family budget of staple foods, fuel, lighting and rent in terms of average prices in sixty cities of Canada, which was in May, 1914, $14.19 is now $19.22, an increase of over 50 per cent, so that to be able to live on the same scale as in May, 1914, salaries should now be over 50 per cent higher.

It is really consider that substantial increases should be made to pay the employees value for services rendered the city, and I would respectfully request your early consideration of this matter.

Yours respectfully,

A. T. STEPHENSON.

SETTLERS COMING FROM THE UNITED STATES.

A steady stream of land seekers has been coming into Western Canada through all the ports of entry on the international boundary since early spring, and the influx continues, according to John Wardrop, general agent of the Canadian National Railways resources department, Winnipeg, who arrived in Edmonton with the American editorial party. The three provinces have been getting a share of the newcomers, but Alberta has probably attracted the greatest number, and the Edmonton district has been the mecca for the majority that have come to this province, as land office records indicate.

Mr. Wardrop states that advice from agents in the States are to the effect that the land movement from the south to western Canada promises to take the form of a regular invasion. There never was so much talk before among actual workers in the central and western states regarding western Canada as there is today, agents report. Everywhere one goes in the rural districts or market towns the people are discussing Canada and the opportunities for farmers of modest means.

The settlers coming in this year are of an unusually good class, Mr. Wardrop says, and most of them are buying unoccupied land within convenient distance of the railways. It is this class of people that the railway is seeking for the western prairies, in pursuance of a policy to get non-producing lands in districts served by existing railways under cultivation, thus securing closer settlement and improving both social and business conditions in town and country, to say nothing of the general benefit of having large areas of fertile lands contributing to the agricultural output of the country.

CITY OF RED DEER

RETURNED VETERANS.

It is the wish of the City of Red Deer to give a certificate of appreciation to every man or woman from the Red Deer district who served in any capacity in the army or navy in the Great War and to the next of kin of those who gave up their lives on the field of honour. The Commissioners will appreciate receiving the names and addresses of any entitled to certificates who have not yet received them.

ANOTHER BIG SHIPMENT

Of these popular Books by Zane Grey and others received this week. Formerly $1.50 books now only 90c. Come in and look them over.

NEW POPULAR MUSIC

New Shipments are being received almost every day. We sell all the popular hits at lowest prices, and fill orders promptly.

SOME NEW VICTROLAS

Arrived last week, the first of the large sizes we have been able to get for over a year on account of the immense Victor plant having been taken over by the government for munition making during the war.

We have been unable to get shipments of the large sizes in Victrolas till now, but hope to be able to supply all sizes very soon. If you have been waiting—as many customers have—call in and see the new models now. We have in stock Victrolas at $34, $49, $61, $136, and $265. Nearly 1800 best Victor Records in stock to choose from.

There has been no advance in price on Victor Records—in fact, prices on the higher-priced Red Seal Records have been greatly reduced this month. Call and see the list.

Ald. A. H. Moyes returned from an eleven hundred mile jaunt in his Gray Dory on Sunday last, looking none the worse for his trip. He was accompanied on his return by Mrs. Moyes and the family. He took in the country to Veteran, then down to Munson, Hanna and other points south to Gleichen. Crops are pretty good to Veteran. At Hanna there are some good crops and Gleichen also had some good crops, but a good part of the south country and east is a barren waste. Some of the best crops he saw on his trip were from Didsbury to Red Deer. He has been away two weeks, and he is glad to be back to this best in the west district of Red Deer, where there has never been a crop failure in its history.

OBITUARY.

MABEN—Died, on Friday, Aug. 1st. George Mahen, aged 26 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Mahen, of North Red Deer. A military funeral was held on Monday, Aug. 4th, from the Jacques-Orme Funeral Home, the Rev. W. G. Brown officiating, after which interment took place in the soldiers' plot of the Red Deer Cemetery.

WHARTON—Died, on Friday, Aug. 1st, Thomas Wharton, aged 25 years, brother of Mrs. Geo. Orme, of Red Deer. The remains will be forwarded on Wednesday morning's train to Guelph, Ont., where interment will take place in the family plot. Arrangements by Jacques-Orme Funeral Home, in care of Geo. L. Jacques, Funeral Director and Embalmer.

The bountiful rains of the past week have saved a bumper crop for the Red Deer district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McManing, of Delburne, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gover last week.

No word has been received from Rev. Gordon Matthews as to the condition of Mrs. Matthews as yet. She was reported critically ill at last report, with little hope of her recovery.

STEWART DENIES STORY THAT HE WILL LEAD THE U.F.A.

Ottawa, Aug. 4.—Premier Stewart, who questioned the story published in the Alberta newspapers, to the effect that he had decided to resign from the premiership of Alberta, to assume the leadership of the U.F.A., gave it his unqualified denial. He said that there was absolutely nothing in the report, and that he had never moved in that move. He would say nothing more, because there was nothing to it and nothing more could be said.

SHE WAS NOT AFRAID OF THE BULL.

The indomitable courage of a Sussex (England) farm girl, who attacked an angry bull which was goring the man she is engaged to marry, and whose father saved his life, has made her the heroine of the countryside. Peggy Fisher is employed at Pitt-down, Sussex, and her fiancé, Thomas Marshall, was feeding the bull at the farm when the animal attacked him, trampled him and began to gore him fiercely. Hearing her sweet-heart's cries, Miss Fisher rushed to his rescue and tried to drive away the bull. At first she failed, but finally she leaped astride the bull's back, and scared it, dashed away. The brave girl managed to slip to the ground unhurt and helped her injured lover from the field.

NEW FEELING OF OPTIMISM IN SOUTH ALBERTA.

Feed Requirements from Outside Points Will Now Be Cut in Half.

Calgary, Aug. 4.—More rain has fallen in this district in the four days of August than for the whole month of July. The total for the 24 hours here from 6 p.m. Sunday to 6 p.m. tonight was 2.65 and the total since Friday morning was 4.29 inches. The rain today was the heaviest since 1915, and was general from Red Deer south to the border and east to Swift Current.

The heavy rains, though too late for the wheat crops, mean that the feed requirements from outside for the southern part of the province will be cut in half. This is an intense relief to stockmen and has brought a new feeling of optimism.
